Dear Friends of Higher Ground:

The following is a letter from Jefferson Gathu, our Higher Ground Bible Ministry Director of Prison Ministries.

Dear Pastor Harold:

I hope this email finds you well and blessed!

I'm thrilled to share that we held a successful graduation ceremony last weekend for our Higher Ground Bible Ministry (HGBM) students - Kenya prisons! We celebrated two remarkable graduations:

- 20 students graduated inside the prison, embracing the Word and equipping themselves for ministry. (Inmates who are still serving, no photos while inside).
- 12 students graduated at our mission ground, deepening their faith and knowledge of God. (Those already released, officers -- photos attached)

The participants were overwhelmed with gratitude for the opportunity to know God and study Theology through Higher Ground Bible Ministry, Prison Ministry, Kenya. Many shared powerful testimonials of transformation—some came to faith while engaging with the Scriptures and studies we provided. The thanksgiving and congratulatory notes from the graduates have been a huge encouragement!

Merry Christmas to you all.

Jefferson & Beth Gathu
